Homeless Outreach

Street outreach is rooted in a simple but powerful philosophy: meet people where they are. Instead of waiting for individuals to come to us, Cross-Lines goes directly into the community on the streets, in encampments, and in places where people are living unsheltered. These interactions focus on building trust, dignity, and consistency, recognizing that meaningful change starts with human connection.

This work reflects the core values of Cross-Lines: compassion, collaboration, and equity. By working alongside KCPD and other organizations, we are able to take a coordinated approach that prioritizes safety while centering the needs and voices of those we serve. Together, we aim not just to respond to immediate needs, but to create real pathways toward stability and housing.

In 2025 alone, 50 individuals were successfully housed, and thousands of outreach contacts were made across the community. Each number represents a person with a story, a struggle, and a renewed opportunity for hope.

Hunger Relief

Cross-Lines continued to fight hunger with compassion and consistency through our Hunger Relief programs. With 14,453 Market visits and 52,554 meals served, we helped ensure that thousands of individuals and families had access to nutritious food during times of uncertainty.

These numbers reflect more than just services provided. They represent neighbors supported, dignity preserved, and barriers reduced. Through our Community Market and Kitchen, Cross-Lines remains committed to meeting immediate needs while creating a welcoming space where everyone is treated with respect and care. For many, these programs are a critical lifeline, offering stability during challenging times. Together with our partners and supporters, we are working toward a future where no one in our community goes hungry.

Volunteers

In 2025, Cross-Lines was powered by the incredible generosity of our volunteers, who gave a remarkable 14,423 hours of service, the equivalent of $458,773 in community impact. These hours represent so much more than numbers on a page; they reflect thousands of moments of compassion, connection, and care for our neighbors in need. Every meal served, shelf stocked, form completed, and conversation shared helped create a stronger, more supportive community.

Our volunteers come from all walks of life, including faith communities, corporate partners, and long-time friends of Cross-Lines who have been showing up for years. Together, they form the heart of our mission. Whether it's a group volunteering for a single day or individuals committing week after week, their dedication embodies the spirit of service that makes our work possible. We are deeply grateful for every person who chose to give their time, talents, and hearts to Cross-Lines in 2025.

Events

Cross-Lines' signature events brought our community together in powerful and meaningful ways. From Cheers to Volunteers, where we honored the incredible people who make our work possible, to the Legacy Breakfast, which inspired long-term commitment to our mission, and the Gala for Hope, our largest celebration of the year, each event reflected the generosity and shared purpose of our supporters.

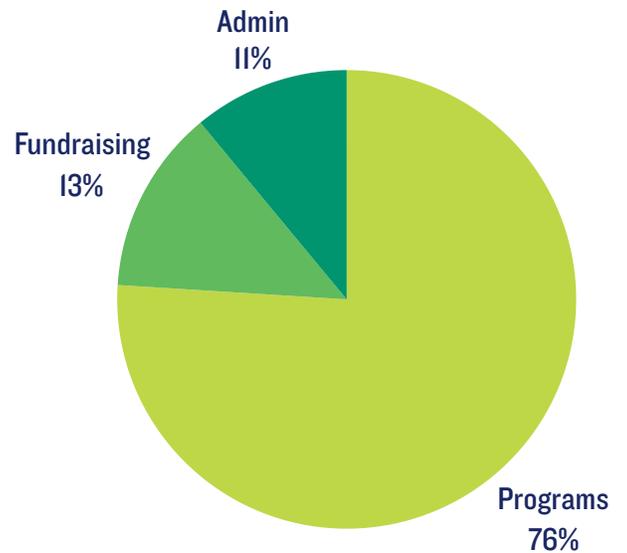

Together, these gatherings raised vital funds, strengthened relationships, and reminded us that lasting change happens when people come together around a common cause. We are deeply grateful to everyone who attended, sponsored, volunteered, and gave. Your support continues to fuel the hope and impact of Cross-Lines throughout our community.
